JEFFERSON BARRACKS

COMMUNITY COUNCIL

PARTNERING TO BRING OUR HISTORY

INTO THE FUTURE

Jefferson Barracks Community Council

Mission Statement

Jefferson Barracks is an historic military installation which as a community, state, and federal asset remains critical to the cultural heritage, support, and defense of the Saint Louis region.

The mission of this community council is to protect, preserve, and promote the heritage of Jefferson Barracks. This heritage includes the historic buildings and the integrity of the landscape, the St. Louis County Parks, the National Cemetery, the VA Medical Center, the National Guard installation, and complementary present and future facilities.

The council will work together to provide focused community effort and cooperation for the preservation of the institutional and historical investments in Jefferson Barracks and the preparation for possible future development/use.

Our Jefferson Barracks Community Council (JBCC) has a large and diverse membership which reflects the interest of so many in the preservation and growth of the entire Jefferson Barracks historic area. The National Guard Base, the St. Louis County historic Jefferson Barracks Park, the JB National Cemetery, and the JB Veterans' Administration Hospital (all of which occupy historic post grounds) are in strong support of our goals.

The surrounding community is also very active and supporting of our goals. There are 100 members who have joined the council and this number is expected to grow. You are invited to fill out the form on the back and to be a part of this effort. You are also welcome at our meetings whether or not you join to learn about this community effort. See the contact information at the bottom of the membership form to find usual meeting times or request more info. Also visit: www.JBCCSTL.org .
